UK Genealogist to visit Clarence libraries

WORLD-renowned genealogist and Federation of Family History Societies vice president, Lady Teviot, will visit Clarence Valley libraries next week as part of Family History Month.

Lady Teviot has been involved with family history research for more than 35 years and specialises in probate research. She has featured in the very successful second and third television series of Heir Hunters on BBC1.

Clarence Valley mayor, Richie Williamson, said council was extremely lucky to have someone visit the Valley who had such passion, enthusiasm and knowledge of genealogy.

Whether people have just started delving into their ancestry or they are a seasoned genealogist, they can bring along their lunch or just have a cuppa on the library.
