Ken Done returns to Maclean

REKNOWNED Australian artist, Ken Done, will visit the Maclean Library for an author talk on Thursday, October 27, at 10am.

Ken Done spent five years of his childhood growing up in Maclean and writes fondly of his memories in his book, A Life Coloured in.

His colourful art work has been exhibited in galleries in Australia and throughout the world. His iconic paintings have appeared on t-shirts, postcards and tea towels.

He is visiting the Clarence Valley for the judging of the Grafton Regional Gallery's Jacaranda Acquisitive Drawing Award with the finalist announced on Friday, October 28.

For book a spot for the author talk, contact Maclean Library on 6645 3611.

Release ends.

For media inquiries contact Clarence Valley Council communications coordinator, David Bancroft, on 6643 0230 or 0429 104 118.
