Keeping our Community Informed

PRESERVATION – A GIFT FROM ONE GENERATION TO THE NEXT

Preserve your past and present - There is an ever increasing volume of digitised material and ephemera in our lives. We have eCards, digital photographs, emails, text messages, online invoices and bank statements, to name just a few.

How do we capture all this in a useful way and preserve it for future reference?

Come along to the next series of Preservation talks in Bellingen, Urunga and Dorrigo to get some pointers on how to organise all this information and keep it stored safely and protected against technological obsolescence.

The talks are being held as follows:

- Dorrigo Library - Tuesday 2 August
- Bellingen Library - Tuesday 9 August
- Urunga Library - Tuesday 16 August

1.00 – 2.00pm: Caring for digital collections

2.00 – 3.00pm: One-on-one Private Preservation talks.

One-on-one discussions on how to prolong the life of your family heirlooms or other precious treasures. Make an appointment with our preservation officer and bring a note pad to record this valuable advice.

Sessions go for 10-15 minutes and places are limited. Contact your local Library to book a place as follows: Bellingen 6655 1744, Dorrigo 6657 2234 or Urunga on 6655 6444.
