SEEDS IN LIBRARY A BLOOMING SUCCESS

In the 10 months since the Dorrigo Seed Savers installed their seed library in the Dorrigo Library more than 260 packets of seeds have been sold via a $2 donation.

Dorrigo Seed Saver, Nyssa Nieuwenhuys is thrilled with the success and said the feedback received at their last Made in Dorrigo Day Market stall was very positive.

Nyssa said people like to visit the library and purchase seed whenever it suits them. "That's the wonderful thing about having somewhere local to make our seed bank available throughout the year. We couldn't have picked a better spot than the library to house our seed as it is a hub of the community and such a well cared for, nurturing environment", added Nyssa.

Any donations of locally grown seed can be deposited at the Dorrigo Library in exchange for a free packet of seed. Simply fill out the form provided in the seed deposit box, leave your donation of seed, and take a free packet of seed in exchange.

The Seed Savers are now restocking the library bank with crops suitable for Spring so now is a great time to visit the Dorrigo Library and stock up.

Please contact the Dorrigo Library for more information on 6657 2234.
