please send your completed form to email: libraryevents@clarence.nsw.gov.au

Applicant Name:

Email Address:

Best Contact Number:

I would like to hold a Publish and Promote event for the following purpose (describe what you would like to do):

Author Bio (a bit about you):

Publication/s Description (a bit about the book/ebook or other publication you are):

Website (if applicable):

By submitting this Expression of Interest I understand:

The library can provide a venue, tea/coffee/water, and a website event listing under the 'Publish and Promote' banner based on information provided by the applicant.

The applicant is responsible for hosting and managing the event including promotion and invitations.

The event must take place during current opening hours and when the library has available space in its meeting rooms. The event may not run for longer than 1 hour without special permission.

The event must be associated with a publication (e-books and collected works are acceptable).
