SUPERCARGE YOUR SUMMER!

Welcome to the SRC Secondary Activity Booklet—created with champions in mind. Completing the activities in this booklet is just one way to participate in the 2017 Summer Reading Club Game On program this year. Be sure to join in the SRC action at your library and online!

At your library

- Sign up for your own library membership card.
- Borrow books from the great reads list.
- Collect a reading log.
- Ask your librarian for more information about real life sporting champions, games and technology.
- Participate in the SRC activities at your library to receive SRC themed incentives and prizes.*

* Note: Programs, activities and incentives delivered locally are provided at your library's discretion. Check with your librarian or library's 'What's On' to find out what is on offer for you at your library this summer!

Please note:

Online summer reading club activities are independent to the programs, activities and incentives that may be offered locally at your public library. Registration in the online program or logging books through the SRC website does not enter you into library in-house competitions. Please talk to your local library staff for participation guidelines for local library activities. For questions relating to online participation visit the SRC Website or contact the SRC Team at summerreadingclub@slq.qld.gov.au

DOWN

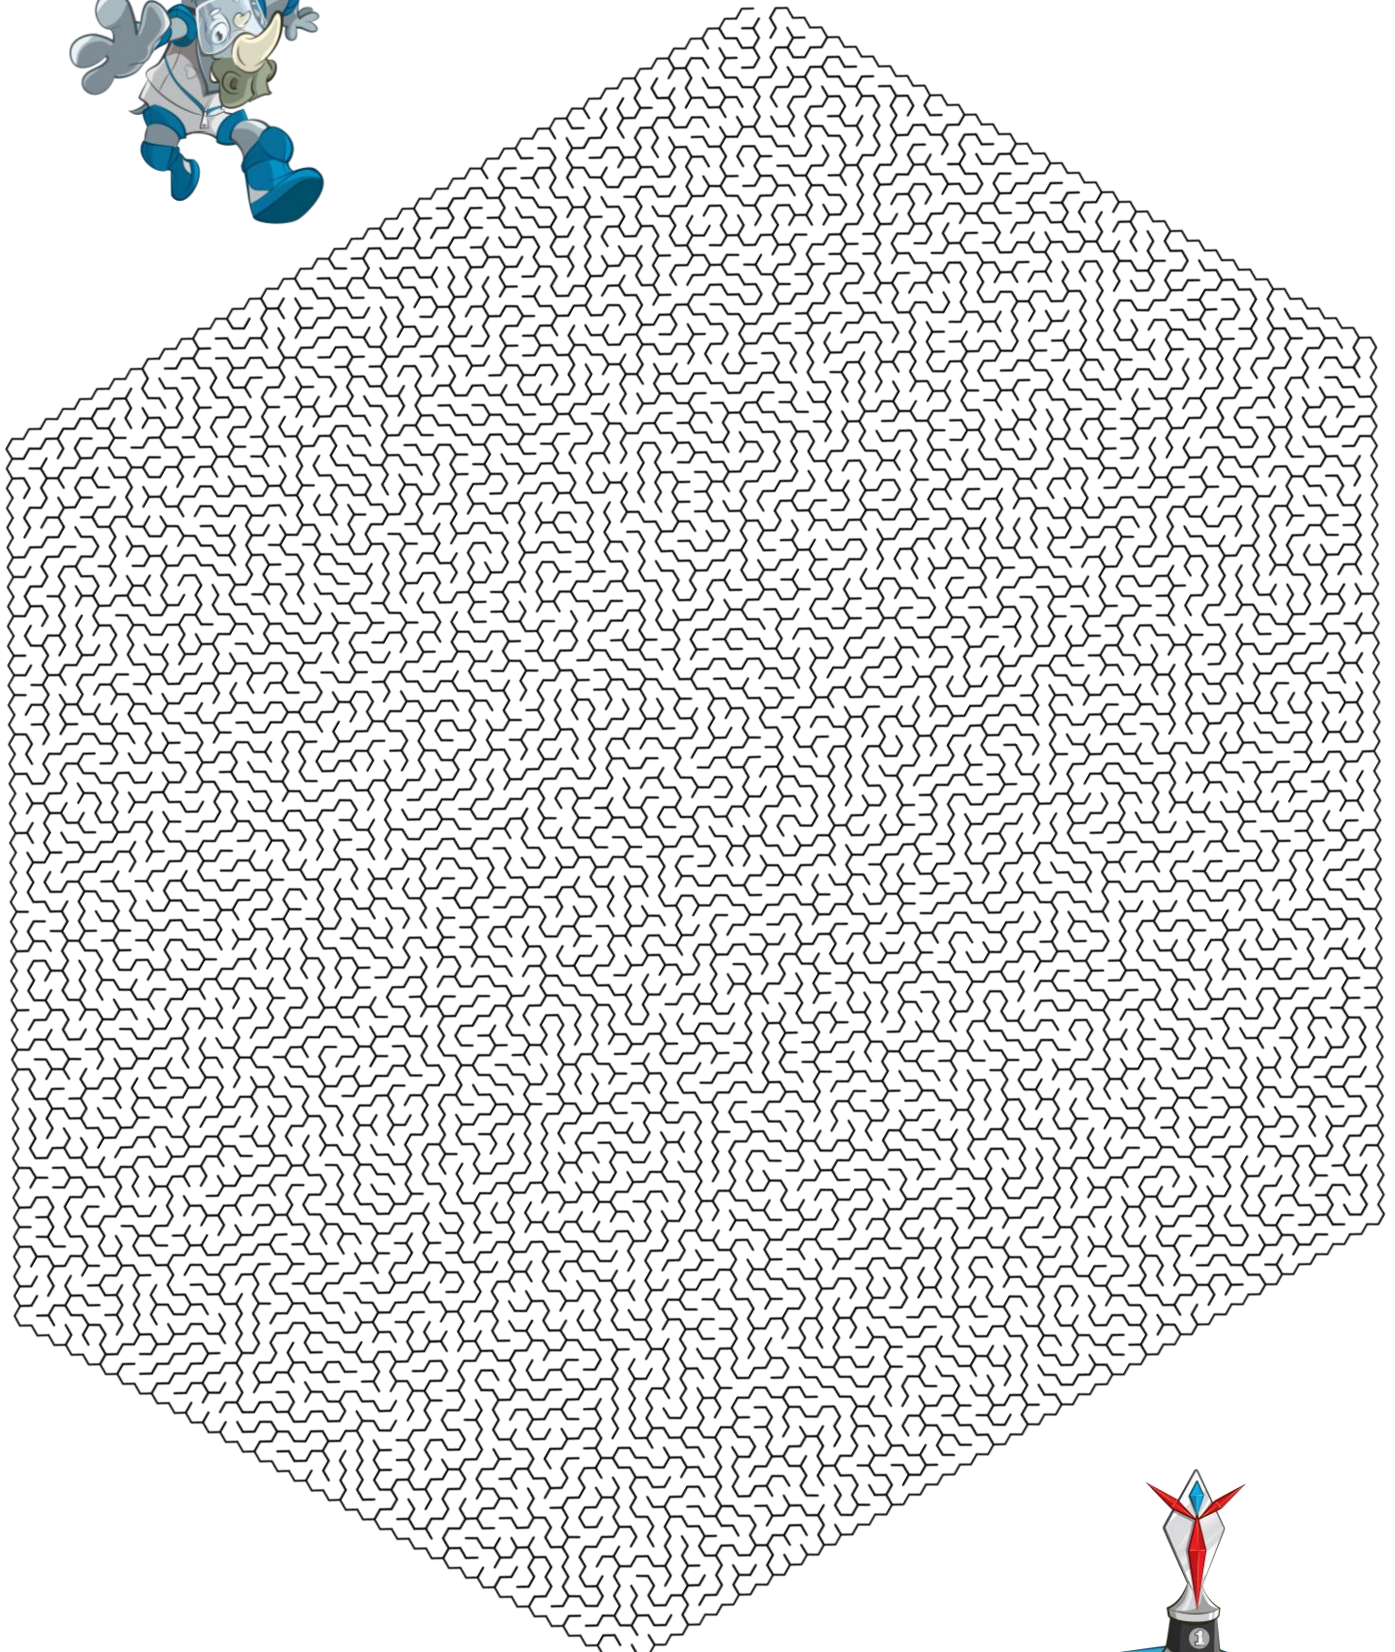

1. This story is a classic tale of war and survival where children are trained from a very young age through increasingly difficult games to develop their tactical genius.
3. When Nadine Neumann decides that she wants to be an Olympic swimmer at age eight, she trades a normal life of school friends and parties for the rigors of elite sports training.
4. This new title by Jason Segal and Kristen Miller asks the question we'll all soon be asking: if technology can deliver everything we want, how much are we willing to pay?
5. This title is a heartwarming graphic novel about friendship and surviving junior high through the power of roller derby.
7. From award-winning children's book author, _____, comes a funny and moving story about a 14-year-old Australian soccer genius and his 10-year-old sister/manager who change the face of English Premier League football.
9. Nine students. Three blood sports. One deadly weekend. This title by M.A. Bennett is sure to keep you enthralled from start to finish.
11. This title by Brunette Lenkić and Rob Hess explores the hidden history of women's Australian Rules Football.
13. To save humanity, they must give up their own. In this title a select group of other terminally ill teens must learn to manipulate their new mechanical forms and work together to train for epic combat... before humanity is destroyed.

ACROSS

2. In this series, written by _____ 12 districts must compete to the death as part of an annual Tribute.
6. In this title by _____ Jamie's sister has been kidnapped and Jamie is convinced he can save her using the principles of game theory. But is strategy the best option when his little sister's life is at stake?
8. In this title by _____ Tony and his friends are seriously bored with their lives. They go 'looking for trouble', and once trouble finds them - it doesn't want to let them go!
10. In this title, _____ Fleur Waters never takes anything seriously - until she turns up at her local boxing club one day.
12. In this title by James Frey and Nils Johnson-Shelton, after centuries waiting in secret, twelve unbroken bloodlines, armed with hidden knowledge and lethal training, are called to take humanity's fate into their hands.
14. In this title by _____, generations ago, violence was banned on New Earth. Society is governed and conflicts are resolved in the arena of a fantasy computer game, Epic. Everyone plays. If you win, you have the chance to go to university, get more supplies for your community, and fulfill your dreams; if you lose, your life both in and out of the game is worth nothing.
15. Gamers and action fans of all types will dive straight into the MEEP, a virtual-reality gaming world, thanks to Julia Durango's cinematic storytelling. A touch of romance, constant twists, and a vivid, multidimensional journey through a tricked-out virtual city will keep readers flying through to the breathtaking end.

GAME ON

Alquerque is an ancient game from North Africa and the Middle East dating back to 1400 BC. It is very similar to checkers. This game requires two players.

1. Collect or create tokens (12 of one colour for each player) or cut out the tokens below.
2. Set your game board up as shown in the picture below.

GAME PLAY

Players take it in turn to move a piece to an empty point, either along a line or jumping over an opponent's piece to an empty point.

Jumping over an opponent's piece captures that piece and it is removed from the board.

More than one capture can be made in one move and the direction of movement can also be changed.

The winner is the first person to remove all their opponents' pieces.

- A. Read as much as you can. Apart from the awesome stories, every author can teach you something about writing.
- B. For me, the idea for the story is super important. Playing around with it and making it grow is so fun.
- C. Writers are the powerhouse of our nation's cultural and creative industries, and it's a privilege to be a part of that.
- D. Don't ever be 'too old' or too busy to sit down and write a story.
- E. A writer has to keep their eyes, ears and heart open; be observant; and wonder. Wonder why? Wonder how come? Wonder what if?
- F. Get off social media, shut down Facebook and Twitter, stop making excuses about why you haven't got time and just start writing!
- G. Create what makes you happy. Don't just do easy things. Work hard at something you love.
- H. Everything you do for the first time will not be perfect. In fact, it'll probably be bad. Terrible even. Work hard, learn, be able to adapt and take criticism. That's how you get good!
- I. Write. If you only talk about it then you're not a writer... you're a talker. Don't be afraid to start.
- J. You can find ideas anywhere—even in your rubbish bin—but you have to do something with your ideas. This summer, spend 10 minutes a day writing, drawing or working on your idea. You'll be surprised what you can achieve.
